

CRNC2018: call for abstracts

Dear colleagues!

We invite you to submit abstracts for the 3rd CAREN Regional Networking Conference (CRNC2018).

«Central Asian Research and Education network (CAREN): strengthening the Eurasian knowledge belt»

23-24 October 2018, Dushanbe, Tajikistan

CRNC2018 will be hosted by Tajik Research and Education Network Association (TARENA), jointly with the Tajik Academy of Sciences. The conference will be held 23-24 October 2018 on the premises of the Tajik Academy of Sciences.

CRNC has established itself as the academic networking conference for Central Asia. The 3rd CAREN Regional Networking Conference – will attract participants from the five Central Asian countries, as well as from neighboring regions and other parts of the world. CRNC brings together academia, scientists, decision makers, ICT specialists and industry representatives across Central Asia and Europe. All have a common interest in the provision of advanced ICT services for research and higher education institutions across the Central Asian region.

CRNC2018 will feature an overview of the recent developments in advanced ICT services for research and higher education, stories from the field in the use of these advanced services and how ICT is best introduced at member institutions of the Central Asian NRENS. Governmental policy makers are explicitly invited to attend the conference to gain a front seat insight into the benefits of advanced ICT services in education and research.

We invite potential speakers to submit abstracts of a paper before June 10, 2018 by registering at: <http://crnc2018.icaren.org> The abstracts need to address one of the topics listed below.
